

Yoonchan Hwang

Hunter James Kelly Research Institute,
Research Technician III, HJKRI, Feltri
Lab

In 2014, Yoonchan Hwang received his B.S. Degree in Biological Science from the University at Buffalo. During his undergrad, from 2013 to 2014, he worked in the laboratory of Dr. Michael C. Yu. The projects worked on in the laboratory involve arginine methylation in protein-protein interactions in the TRAMP complex and splicesomal proteins in S. cerevisiae.

Starting 2014, he is a Research Technician(III) in the Feltri Laboratory at the Hunter James Kelly Research Institute. He is studying the role of p38gamma on myelination and oligodendrocyte maturation.
